Volunteer Opportunities

"Life's most persistent and urgent question is, what are you doing for others?" - Martin Luther King, Jr.

Volunteering at Our Bookstores

Books Revisited

Local residents, civic organizations and businesses generously donate “gently-read” books sold at our stores. All bookstore proceeds support home health and hospice care for patients in need.

Volunteer duties include sorting, shelving and selling books, maintaining displays, answering phones and assisting customers.

Our bookstore volunteers generally work a three hour shift, one day a week, Monday through Saturday.

Other Volunteer Opportunities

Administrative Support

Clerical volunteers assemble new patient packets, organize mailings, assist with special projects and give other “behind the scenes” support at our Saco and Portland offices.

Flu Shot Clinics

Clinic volunteers assist staff during flu season at clinics throughout Southern Maine.

Gardening

Seasonal volunteers help by weeding, raking and planting in our Memorial Garden in Saco.

Volunteers at Work

Volunteers are the heart and spirit of HomeHealth Visiting Nurses. Our dedicated volunteers support our mission by giving generously of their time at our bookstores, clinics, offices, gardens, bus trips and professional advisory committees. We greatly appreciate the invaluable services they provide.
